

What's On: Exhibitor Highlights

AB Precision will explain how Remotely Operated Vehicles can make a significant difference to emergency services operations including CBRN and search and rescue.

AEBI Smidt is to give a UK premiere to its flexible and versatile MT 750 fire truck, sure to attract attention from many of the UK's 52 regional fire and rescue services, thanks to its slim profile, extreme maneuverability, off-road capabilities and can-do attitude.

AES will be demonstrating all of its fleet management solutions on its stand

Airport Fire Officers Association holds its AGM at the Show

Armadillo Merino will be explaining why firefighters' choice of underwear has a real impact on their safety, performance and comfort. Its latest range of superfine merino wool clothing will be on display.

Aritisi will be sharing details of how it has helped clients to build effective cyber security strategies

Bariquins will display its bariatric mannequin and share alarming statistics on obesity.

Blue Light Services will be releasing three new vehicles at the Show.

BMW Group celebrates a proud 45-year heritage of supplying roads policing vehicles by displaying special heritage vehicles alongside their modern counterparts.

Boot Repair Company encourages visitors to bring their worn out boots to the stand for repair. It will be selling the ever popular and adjustable Orthosole insoles.

Bristol Uniforms will have its biggest-ever stand at the Show this year with a new Collaborative Framework section.

British Burn Association visit their stand to find out about The Burns Game, an educational board game to improve the initial management of burns developed in partnership with Birmingham City University

British Red Cross will be showcasing a bespoke vehicle designed by Land Rover to support their work in Austria.

Brother UK will be showcasing AIRScouter, an advanced head-mounted display designed to increase safety and productivity for drone pilots in the emergency services.

Cartwright Conversions will showcase a newly designed Patient Transport Service vehicle and a police dog van built on a Ford Transit Custom.

CIPHER Medical are back for a second year at The Emergency Services Show to provide free training for health care professionals, ambulance staff, police and fire. Employing its education ethos of 'Making excellence the clinical standard', it will explore areas such as traumatic cardiac arrest, stab wounds, end of life care and both days will include a live resuscitative thoracotomy demonstration.

Chevin Fleet Solutions – exhibiting for the first time. Showcasing latest versions of software for all bluelights including FleetWare CORE. Live demonstrations and one to one consultations throughout the Show.

Class Professional Publishing launching 3 new books at timed events - with cake! Author of Emergency Birth in the Community and midwife with 24 years of experience will be available on the stand. Also have a separate fire stand where launching another publication.

CPDme will be supporting the Show for the second year with an interactive CPD certificate station, issuing attendees with CPD certificates for the Show's free seminars.

Doc-Works will be giving demonstrations of its paper to digital compliance and reporting solutions

Drager demonstrating drug and alcohol testing kits. Also an escape hood for fire fighters to use on casualties. They will have a barista on the stand. Come and join them for a coffee and chat. Special buy one get one half price offer on transport ventilator.

DSTL (the MOD Defence Science & Technology Laboratory) will be running photo-realistic virtual reality demonstrations.

Dupont will introduce the new Tychem TK fully encapsulating suit (with self-contained breathing apparatus) which provides an effective barrier against more than 300 chemicals.

Excelerate will feature new solutions for implementation more widely at fleet level, connecting individual responders with the transfer of data, video and voice.

Fire Ladders & Equipment will be showing new ideas with great savings in space and cost including its new "A" Frame made up using short extension ladders with a high load capacity.

Fire Service Research & Training Trust will launch a new website and four new grant opportunities at the Show.

Fire Service Rota will introduce the Tiered Response Model, developed by Buckinghamshire Fire & Rescue Service and implemented into the scheduling software recently.

Fire Hosetech will showcase its Tipsa range which was put to good use in the fight against the recent moorland fires.

Flood Protection Solutions will be showcasing the Water-Gate barrier which offers huge cost and efficiency savings to the emergency services.

Freelance Surgical will showcase the all-new CalpelCric developed to allow users to follow the new difficult airway guidelines.

Handheld UK will showcase the new Nautiz X9 Android rugged PDA along with its complete family of rugged computers.

Holmatro will be exhibiting latest products including faster-than-ever cordless rescue tools, new lifting bag range, and the Inclined Cutter – a unique Holmato invention with a tilted blade that maximises working space.

In Safe Hands will give visitors virtual reality tour of simulation centre training facilities on its stand.

International Ambulance set to unveil its advanced ACESO ambulance prototype at the Show

Iqarus invites visitors to enter their business cards into a prize draw on their stand. The draw will take place at the end of day 2 and the winner will receive a FREE CPD training course at its Hereford training centre in Rotherwas during one of its scheduled courses

Keela will exhibit its latest addition to the range, the Sentinel half-jacket that allows wearers to operate and access equipment unhindered.

Landau will be displaying Seabob Rescue dubbed the lifesavers' watercraft which could even be used as a surveillance craft for water-based activities

Leicestershire Fire & Rescue Services will be launching 2-3 new virtual reality training sessions

LHD Group Deutschland will present a "Kinetic" suit with new lightweight materials and solutions to prevent skin contamination such as flash hoods to protect the transition area between the jacket collar and helmet mask.

Lyon Equipment will be showcasing a number of Lyon and Petzl products including the ANCHORA single-piece anchor solution designed for industrial application and training facilities.

Mangar Air Cushion Challenge. This is a speed test of setting up and inflating its emergency lifting cushion the Mangar ELK. They are offering a bottle of bubbly to whoever can make it to the top of its leaderboard.

MEDCAX is launching Stephan EVE-TR emergency transport ventilator for adult, paediatric, infant and neonates.

National Fire Chiefs Council running free seminar programme on their stand.

NESM (National Emergency Services Memorial) is raising £2m to build Britain's first National Emergency Services Memorial, to honour all who serve/have served in the emergency services (including volunteers and service animals), and to honour the 5000+ people who have lost their lives in the line of duty. The NESM held its first annual emergency services day on 9 September.

NightSearcher will be showcasing its latest innovation, Pro Star, a search and floodlight.

Northamptonshire Joint Command Vehicle There are closed "Connected Vehicle Strategy Sessions" sessions by appointment only (Day 1 10.30-12.00 and Day 3 14.00-15.30) hosted by Northamptonshire Fire & Rescue and Police Joint Operations Team. Find out more about the Joint Command Unit and ExceleRate's new ConneX hub that can be integrated to any front-line response vehicle to provide secure and private connectivity. Also "walk through" seminars on their stand as part of Technology Seminar Programme.

O & H to launch a new vehicle (w/c 03/09) - photocall on their stand (G27) on Weds 19th September at 10am.

Ortus Group (UK distributors for the corpuls defibrillator range), will be supporting its German manufacturers by having a German beer garden on its stand! One half of its stand demonstrates up and coming technology, the other half is a typical Bavarian style beer garden, serving German beer, soft drinks, tea, coffee, bratwurst and pretzels. Will also be launching the first turbine-driven ventilator for the ambulance market.

Palm Equipment will launch its new Rescue Universal PFD and feature products such as the industry-leading Rescue Extrem PFD and Rescue throwlines.

Petzl will exhibit the new DUO line of headlamps.

Plas Menai will be introducing 10 new training options developed by Rescue 3.

Premier Communication Electronics will be showcasing its outfitted and fully-customised Mitsubishi Shogun installed with emergency warning equipment and in-vehicle communication solutions for all mission-critical situations. PCE has also teamed up with Hytera to demonstrate the VM685 Bodycam.

Primetech will demonstrate its advanced MultiNet Communications system

Public Health England will launch the recently updated Chemical, Biological, Radiological and Nuclear Incidents: Clinical Management and Health Protection handbook

Mobile Massage team of professionally trained therapists will be providing energising and releasing 10-minute back-and-head massages. Visitors are invited to pay whatever they feel the massage was worth.

Rennicks Integrated Vehicle Mounted VMS – a mobile traffic information system - will be demonstrated, along with their range of exceptional conspicuity materials

Rig Equipment will be launching the Rig Eagle Ultra (non safety boot).

Ring Carnation will be previewing the next generation of its specialist vehicle electronic management solution genisys.

Rosenbauer taking an extra-large stand following a continued period of growth. Surrey Fire & Rescue Service's new "Super-Pumper" will be unveiled. In the outdoor area, visitors can "fly" the all-new XS 3.0 articulated turntable ladder which has greater rescue capability than any other turntable ladder on the market.

Royal Society for Public Health will be promoting their Emergency Services Hub and encouraging visitors to sign up to their Scroll Free September campaign

Ruth Lee will be opening applications for its social commitment project "Volunteer Heroes" through which they will offer financial support or equipment to volunteer rescue teams around the world.

Simulaids will be showcasing "Alex", the company's patient communication simulator

South Central Ambulance Service is recruiting at the Show. Find out about opportunities in SCAS frontline, call centre, patient transport and support roles.

Southern Scientific will be demonstrating two products. The Serstech 100 indicator for unknown white powder incidents and Tracerco electronic personal dosimeter for radiation monitoring.

Steroplast Healthcare will showcase its Smart Technical Applicator Tourniquet ideal for mass casualty incidents and easy for even untrained citizens to apply.

Survitec will be showcasing its enhanced flood rescue range including a new inflatable emergency response boat. It will also be briefing visitors on its RESCU high-rise building evacuation system.

Tactical UK are giving visitors the chance to meet members of the Red Devil's Freefall Parachute display team and enter a competition to win a tandem jump!

TECDRON will be exhibiting its latest robot named SENTINEL. Customers include the Parisian and Amsterdam fire brigades.

The Big Emergency will officially launch on stand D45. This non-profit charitable organisation is on a mission to ensure all UK emergency service departments, and voluntary rescue organisations, have all the essential rescue equipment they require to maintain high rescue standards, and keep rescue personnel safe while saving lives.

UK Firefighter Sailing Challenge will launch its 2019 Regatta on its stand on Thursday 20th September at 11am. Sponsorship opportunities available.

UKISAR celebrating 25th anniversary at the Show

Vimpex launching FirstLook360 search camera making live streaming possible from within confined spaces

WAS UK showing a concept all-electric ambulance and a new layout to improve paramedic safety enabling them to use a seatbelt.

WH Bence will be displaying latest developments in command and control, and connected vehicles. See the full range of cameras they offer and how they can connect to anywhere in the world. They will unveil the partnership between Airbox and Bence Command who together have developed an incident command and control software

WMFS will be demonstrating the Exercise and Examination Virtual Reality (XVR) incident command simulation unit. It has been designed for the education, training and assessment of incident response and management for the emergency services. Staff from Staffordshire and West Midlands Fire Control and occupational health teams will also be taking part, and fire investigation dog Kai (together with handler, Mat) are also expected to make an appearance.

Zoll will launch the EMS Challenge; an interactive experience where all participants will have the opportunity to experience ZOLL's advanced technologies first-hand. The challenge features four stations for delegates to complete. Free T-shirt for everyone who completes the challenge.